

Lunenburg Lit Festival 2023

Thursday, September 14 – 10 am

Children's Event

Shauntay Grant

St John's Parish Hall, 64 Townsend Street

Thursday, September 14 – 7:30 pm

Maud Lewis Takes on the World!

Storyteller, Carol Bruneau, Scholar, Ray Cronin, and Collector, John Risley discuss the life and work of Nova Scotia's most renowned artist, hosted by CBC's Jeff Douglas.

St John's Parish Hall, 64 Townsend Street

Friday, September 15 - 7 pm

Triple Crown of Extraordinary Writers

Amanda Peters, Jennifer Robson, and Donna Morrissey.

Lunenburg School of the Arts, 6 Prince Street

Saturday, September 16 – 2pm

Dirty Business

Charlie Angus in discussion with scholar and journalist Trina Roache on his latest book Cobalt, about Canadian resource extraction, its disturbing role in global mining, and the town where it all started.

Lunenburg School of the Arts, 6 Prince Street

Saturday, September 16 – 7pm

True Grit

Jesse Thistle From the Ashes was Canada's bestselling book for two years running. He'll discuss his book and explore the themes of life on the streets, Métis identity, and the role of resilience in becoming a poet, memoirist, and scholar with publisher Bruce Walsh.

Lunenburg School of the Arts, 6 Prince Street

For More Information Call 902-543-2548

lunenburglitfestival.ca

TICKETS

Children's Event- FREE

All other Events - $20

Weekend Pass - $50

Purchase online - lunenburglitfesitval.ca

Purchase in person - South Shore Public Library Branches